BRATISLAVA | SURPRISINGLY CLOSE | EXCEPTIONALLY SMART

Shedding the trappings of its storied history, Bratislava is gradually earning a reputation as a global innovation hub. Start-ups are thriving while the city is undergoing a transformation to keep up with the changing times. Without question, it's an exciting time to be in Bratislava!

BRATISLAVA FACTS

- Located in the heart of Europe, you can visit at least 4 countries within a single day from Bratislava. It is the only capital in the world located near the borders of three countries – Czech Republic, Austria and Hungary, and the closest to another capital – Vienna.
- 11 kings and 7 royal spouses were crowned in St. Martin's Cathedral, among them was Maria Theresa in 1741. For almost 300 years, it was the coronation town of the Royal House of Habsburg.

- Bratislava made "name change" a thing right before any celebrity did. In fact, among its many aliases were: Pressburg, Pozsony and Prešporok.
- As capital of the Kingdom of Hungary from 1536 to 1783, Bratislava's compact historical center packs a real punch – complete with a castle, churches, narrow cobblestoned streets, and beautiful mansions reflecting its royal past. It was (and still is) a cultural center that attracted the likes of Mozart and Beethoven.

- Love it or hate it, Petržalka remains a notable legacy of the Communist era. It is Central Europe's largest neighborhood of housing estates.
- Considering its modest population of half a million, you might be surprised to find out that Bratislava consistently ranks as one of the richest regions of the European Union by GDP per capita. It was ranked as the 6th wealthiest last year, reinforcing its status as the most economically prosperous region in Slovakia.

INDEPENDENCE

You choose when you want to listen, work, eat, network, rest or discuss.

INTERACTIVITY

We have scheduled as much time for discussions & workshops as for presentations! That's how we make sure your questions get answered.

"YOU" TIME

Conferences can be super exhausting – trust us, we know - so we will have a chill-out zone with drinks and snacks ready for you. You can recharge yourself and your phone anytime you need.

AWESOME AFTER-PARTY!

We are not fans of fancy cocktail receptions and we dread small talk. Grab a drink with the rest of us and enjoy the evening. Getting to know people is the most valuable part of the conference!

We are all about feeling comfortable and we believe in a good balance of fun and knowledge!
